

Icon Workshop at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church The Good Shepherd • an Icon in the Coptic Style Wednesday – Saturday • February 5-8, 2025

We are excited to announce that St. Andrew's will be hosting another Icon Workshop in the winter of 2025 when Peter Pearson will lead us in the creation of an Icon in the Coptic Style depicting The Good Shepherd.

A few notes about Coptic iconography: Coptic iconography is a distinct and unique form of icon painting originating in Egypt in the second and third centuries. It is the origin of both the "Byzantine" and "Russian" schools of writing that we are more familiar with. In the past 100 years, the style has enjoyed a renaissance among iconographers and the faithful. It is deceptively simple, almost folksy, with large almond-shaped eyes and shortened figures. This specific prototype is contemporary. It will introduce us to the Coptic style and give us a chance to practice lettering. The dimensions of the piece are 10" x 12.5". Peter assures us not to worry - assistance will be plentiful!

We hope that you will consider joining us in late February as we paint and pray. Interested? Here are further details:
