THE LESSONS

FIRST LESSON: Isaiah 49:1-7

Reader: A reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away! The Lord called me before I was born, while I was in my mother's womb he named me. He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away. And he said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified." But I said, "I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my cause is with the Lord, and my reward with my God." And now the Lord says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the sight of the Lord, and my God has become my strength—he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

Thus says the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, “Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the Lord, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 40:1-12

Good News Translation

Cantor I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

All I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

©2002 Robert Hawthorne

Cantor I waited patiently for the LORD's help;
then he listened to me and heard my cry.
He pulled me out of a dangerous pit, out of the deadly quicksand.
He set me safely on a rock and made me secure.

All I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

Cantor He taught me to sing a new song, a song of praise to our God.
Many who see this will take warning and will put their trust in the LORD.
Happy are those who trust the LORD, who do not turn to idols or join those who worship false gods.

All I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

Cantor You have done many things for us, O LORD our God;
there is no one like you!
You have made many wonderful plans for us.
I could never speak of them all— their number is so great!

All I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

Cantor You do not want sacrifices and offerings;
you do not ask for animals burned whole on the altar or for sacrifices to take away sins.
Instead, you have given me ears to hear you, and so I answered, “Here I am;
your instructions for me are in the book of the Law.

All I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

Cantor How I love to do your will, my God!
I keep your teaching in my heart.”
In the assembly of all your people, LORD,
I told the good news that you save us.
You know that I will never stop telling it.

All I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

Cantor I have not kept the news of salvation to myself;
I have always spoken of your faithfulness and help.

In the assembly of all your people I have not been silent about your loyalty and constant love.
LORD, I know you will never stop being merciful to me.
Your love and loyalty will always keep me safe.

All I love to do your will, O God, here I am.

SECOND LESSON: 1 Corinthians 1:1-9

Reader A reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind— just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you— so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL John 1:29-42

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God." The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!"

The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter).

The Sermon

Fr. Haynes

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit

and the Virgin Mary

and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father,

who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Intercessor and People pray responsively

Let us pray.

For the whole church of God, that it may grow in unity and servant hood. We pray especially for Bartholomew, Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople; Leo, Bishop of Rome; Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury-designate; Sean our presiding bishop; Philip our bishop; for priests, deacons and all who minister in Christ, and for all the holy people of God.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the Anglican Communion; The Episcopal Church; our diocese, especially St. Luke's/San Lucas, Vancouver; All Saints', Vancouver; and for our parish.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the leaders and people of the world, especially those who serve in our co-equal branches of government, that reconciliation and peace may overcome conflict and oppression. We pray for our armed forces and for those who are deployed and for all who uphold the Constitution through dutiful service, speech and protest.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the hungry in body, mind or spirit, that they may be nourished by your presence and truth.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the sick and those in pain, for the lonely and the forgotten, for the dying and all who mourn, that your healing grace may shine forth in the shadows of this world. We pray for all those on our prayer list and those in our hearts, especially for those we now name....

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the gifts of joy and love, that we may bear witness to the manifestations of your glory. We give thanks for all the blessings of this life, especially for those we now name....

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For those who have died and now abide in Christ's presence, remembering especially those we now name....

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Celebrant and People

O God, who wonderfully created, and yet more wonderfully restored, the dignity of human nature: grant that we may share the divine life of him who humbled himself to share our humanity, your Son Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

Celebrant

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The people stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. Through Mary's Holy Child, you have delivered us from evil and made us worthy to stand before you. You have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

Celebrant There - fore, ac - cord-ing to his com-mand, O God,

All We re-mem-ber his death, We pro-claim his res-ur-rec - tion,

We a - wait his com - ing in glo - - ry;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, gather all things into your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where with the Ever Blessed Virgin Mary, Blessed Andrew and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, O Holy One, now and forever.

All: A - MEN.____

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Fraction Anthem

A musical score for three voices. The top voice has a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "We gathered the grain from the hill - side, Lord, and". The middle voice has a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "crushed it to make this bread.". The bottom voice has a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "So gather your church in all".

We gathered the grain from the hill - side, Lord, and crushed it to make this bread. So gather your church in all places and times, and make all your people one.

One in the bread, one in the life-blood, one in the body of Christ, make all your people one.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation
 The Gifts of God for the People of God. All are Welcome at the Table.

The Holy Communion

All are welcome at Christ's Table! For those worshiping in person, please follow the directions of the Ushers. Consecrated bread is distributed by the priest at the front of the center aisle. Please exit your pew via the center aisle. Hand sanitizer is available at the end of each pew if you wish to use it. If you prefer a gluten-free host, simply ask the priest at the time of receiving. To receive a blessing rather than the bread, simply come forward to the priest and cross your arms across your chest.

Wine is offered by the chalice bearer closer to the side aisle. You may partake in one of three options: drink directly by mouth from the chalice (please no intinction), stop in front of the chalice bearer and receive the words of administration, or clearly bypass the chalice bearer.

Prayers for Healing

Prayers for healing with anointing are available during Communion on Sundays at the Healing Station to the left of the Pulpit if there is someone present at the station. If no one is present at the station during Communion, please connect with the clergy immediately following the liturgy for healing prayers.
